OUR PERFORMERS

Susan Arjmand is a physician and medical educator by day, and singer and pianist in her "off hours". She is a founding member of Opera Inter Alia, a group of opera singers who offer a salon series in Chicago restaurants. Tonight at Borelli's at 6PM.

Evelyn Danner, multi-talented singer, theater costume designer, and CPS educator, is a founding artist of Black Voices in Cabaret, a Working In Concert initiative.

Chicago native Jeanne Franks is a design professional in the architecture and construction industry. She performs as jazz vocalist for corporate and private events and is a long-time radio host at WDCB 90.9 FM, Chicagoland's jazz station.

Ruth Fuerst, psychotherapist by day, Ruth joined SongShop in 2012 to dispense wisdom by night. She created the CAR trio with Carol Weston and Arlene Armstrong.

Claudia Hommel, singer-actor, is co-founder of Chicago Cabaret Professionals, SongShop, Chicago Paris Cabaret Connexion, and nonprofit Working In Concert.

Staci Kelley, actress, director, and singer, Staci has performed in several musical and non-musical productions, and performs cabaret in the Chicagoland area.

Jonathan Lewis performed in his first musical at age 10 and appeared in over 100 productions. Post acting career, he has been a film critic, arts writer and author.

Howard Pfeifer has worked in Chicago and LA as pianist, composer, arranger, and musical director with an extensive roster from Patti LaBelle to Hamilton.

Barbara Smith, winner of the 2018 Skokie Idol Contest, started as a folk singer, playing guitar. She is vice-president of Working In Concert and a lead coordinator for the Cabaret Connexion. Catch her Swingin' Sisters trio around town.

Singer-songwriter Gabriel Valentino is inspired by "Words, life, possibility, and divinity". He is a founding member of the Chicago Paralegal Association and creator of the social media Umami Memories: "Savoring, Story, Song, & Soul."
